Qualifications

Please describe your relevant analytical skills.

In my employment I am required to analyze large volumes of data to make budgeting and financial decisions. Also, as problems arise in the business units that report to me I am skilled at determining what information should be gathered to determine the root cause of these issues.

In addition my division is tasked with innovation and new business development and I must examine a variety of information to decide what endeavors will be worthwhile for the company to pursue.

My employer is on a journey to eventually win the Baldrige National Quality award. Through the process of applying for the Texas Quality award, my leadership style has been positively impacted as we have examined our quality-management systems and improved key processes.

Please describe your ability to be impartial.

In my volunteer life I was trained as an ombudsman and spent five years working with the Area Agency on Aging as an ombudsman in a long-term care nursing facility. These skills have helped me immensely in my work life. There are approximately 160 employees working on the campus that I am responsible for and over 1,400 employees in our organization. My ombudsman training assists me on a daily basis as I deal with HR issues and other decision making that requires me to understand both sides of an issue and make fair and consistent decisions.

Please describe your appreciation for the City of Austin's diverse demographics and geography.

I have lived for over 35 years in an area of Austin that is demographically diverse and have been employed for 24 years in an organization that advocates for diversity in the workplace. As a volunteer I work for one organization and am board chair of another serving people who are homeless. Both organizations utilize volunteers from religious congregations of all faiths.

I love Austin and can't imagine living anywhere else. I swim in Barton Springs, run the trails, bike the hills and taunt my sibling over the great good fortune that brought me to this city.

Please provide any other information you wish to be considered during the selection of the most qualified applicants for the Commission.

I am the Vice President of Environmental Business at Goodwill Industries of Central Texas. As an executive in this organization I am actively involved in strategic planning initiatives and believe that my ability to think strategically will serve me well if I am chosen as a member of the Redistricting Commission.

Here at Goodwill we have a leadership learning program and I teach Servant Leadership three times a year. By teaching and practicing these skills I am reminded often of the importance to hearing what others have to say and examining my own assumptions.

I would be delighted to serve on the Redistricting Commission and if chosen will work to deliver the best product possible to the citizens of Austin.

DISCLAIMER

I understand my application is public information under the Texas Public Information Act. The information will be kept according to the City Auditor's records retention policies.
